METAL-ERA NAMED TOP WORKPLACE

Waukesha, WI—Metal-Era, Inc., the national leader in commercial roof edge and roof ventilation solutions, announces that it has been named among the top 100 workplaces in Southeastern Wisconsin.

The Milwaukee Journal Sentinel surveyed tens of thousands of employees on six areas: direction, execution, career, managers, conditions and pay and benefits. The results of these surveys were tabulated and the top 100 companies were divided into three categories: large, midsize and small. Metal-Era was named 17th in the small workplaces category (fewer than 150 employees) and its top rank was in the area of pay and benefits.

“I am honored that Metal-Era is considered a top workplace and named among so many other well-known companies,” says Tony Mallinger, Chief Operations Officer. “The credit goes to all of our employees who are Metal-Era’s true asset.”

Some of the employee comments from the survey include:

What does your manager do well?

“Listens, very detailed, very organized... you ask for something and she gives you the answer back right or hands you what you need/ asked for.”

I love my job because...

“They offer me the training and support allowing me to succeed at Metal-Era. The work environment is a lot of fun, and hard working.”

What contributes most to you wanting to stay with this organization?

“It is a family atmosphere. Ownership truly cares about all employees, and we are kept ‘in the loop’ as to the state of the business.”

What contributes most to your recommending working at this organization to others?

“It is a family owned business that truly cares about their employees. They provide a wonderful workplace environment and they go above and beyond what is necessary for them to do.”
